Good Morning!

This morning you will see a portrayal of Jesus and His disciples observing the Passover meal one last time, on the evening before Jesus' crucifixion. The disciples had observed the Passover with Jesus before. Whenever a Jew was invited to a meal, their position at the table relative to the host was significant, and was a public display of their importance in the eyes of the host. The discussion among these men that night most likely had a lot to do with where they each believed they should fall in Jesus' pecking order. But, Jesus had something else in mind. He transformed their meal into a memorial that would forever shift their focus from their own self-importance to the One who was about to sacrifice His body and shed His blood so that all people would be welcome at His table.

As these men re-enact what came to be called, "The Lord's Supper," you will have an opportunity to participate. We practice an 'open table' here at Roseland Park. That means that anyone who has publically professed Jesus as Savior and has followed His example of believer's baptism, is welcome to participate with us. May this experience today remind you that your free gift of salvation cost Jesus everything.

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

Hosanna in the Highest!

Dan
