Good Morning!

"It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas" is a Christmas song written in 1951 by Meredith Willson (yes, 2 'l's). It references candy canes, toys, holly, snow, carols, and other familiar things associated with the secular idea of Christmas. Well, it has been looking a lot like Christmas around RPBC ever since Thanksgiving! We've had the Ladies Christmas Luncheon, Marie Whitman's Christmas Village, the Children's Choir musical, the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, The Erwins' Christmas Concert, the Adult Choir Christmas concert, Operation Christmas Child, the Loving Stitchers and Joy Sunday School class Christmas projects, the Handbell Choir performance, the Children's Live Nativity, Christmas parties by Sunday School classes and departments, Christmas Caroling, and last night's annual Christmas Eve Service with Lord's Supper. And, we have been engaged in a weekly series of messages emphasizing the Advent. I suppose I should also include today's worship service, since many churches across the nation have canceled their services today in order to not interfere with the Christmas plans of their members. Wait, really??? I'm shaking my head, even as I type this.

Yes, it has looked a lot like Christmas around RPBC this month. It has been my prayer that all of those things have pointed to Jesus as a reminder to you of why we celebrate Christmas. May the joy of His birth flow forth from your heart today and throughout 2023!

Janice and I wish you and your family the Merriest Christmas ever! Thank you for the gift of being able to serve here and be a part of God's flock at RPBC!

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

Merry Christmas!

Dan
