Good Morning!

From the first pages of Genesis, God ordained the family. After the fall in Genesis chapter 3, He told Eve that she would have pain in child-birth. But, in that proclamation He also established motherhood. Motherhood is represented as a high and important calling. God even uses the metaphor of mothers to describe the ways He loves and cares for His children: “As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you” (Isaiah 66:13).

Society has changed a lot since the ancient days in which the biblical characters lived. But, the high calling of one who loves, cares for, nurtures, comforts, and trains was established by God and is as unchanging as God Himself.

Mother’s Day is a special holiday set apart to honor mothers. I recognize that some of our precious women were not appointed by God to bear children. One day He will explain His reasoning to you face to face. However, all of us have a mother, whether biological, adoptive, or placed by God in that role by some other means. Today is meant to honor them. And, if you are one of them, we honor you!

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

Her children arise and call her blessed!

Dan
