Good Morning!

My mother's instructions were not open to debate. She would frequently tell my brother and me, "Don't just hear me, heed me!" Then, there was my high school football coach. He was a stickler for things being done a certain way. If his instructions were not followed exactly, he would often demonstrate the desired technique by taking on the role himself of the opponent we were supposed to block or tackle. Mama and Coach prepared me well for the Marine Corps, where we were taught to obey orders without delay and without question. With all that training, one would think that following God's commands would come easy for me. Think again! Why is it that we often respond as if God's commands are suggestions? Here's another question. Of all God's commandments, why does it seem that the most difficult ones to obey are His 'love' commandments? Hmm....

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

You Are Loved!
