Good Morning!

In the first part of his epistle (letter) to the church at Ephesus, Paul pointed out the spiritual blessings that we believers have in Christ. This highlighted God's grace to us and our response of praise to Him. This latter section of chapter 1 now reminds us of the intimate relationship we have with God. Our very lives are now defined primarily through our "communion," our relationship, with Him. This relationship is not vague and abstract, but is intimate and life-giving. It changes who we are and what we do. It changes everything. How do you respond to that? How SHOULD you respond to that?

This afternoon we will convene an ordination council for Jeremiah Cloy in the Conference Room at 4:00pm. All ordained men of the church are asked to participate. Then, we will have a special worship service this evening at 6:00pm in which we will ordain Jeremiah. The call and ordination of a deacon is a serious responsibility of a church. I hope you will come back tonight to show your support for Jeremiah and Amanda as they embark on this special call.

For those who are our guests today, in behalf of Roseland Park Baptist Church, you are welcome here! Of all of the places you could be, we are so glad you have chosen to spend this time with us. If you would like to know how to become part of the family of God, or even how to become part of the Roseland Park family, I would love to discuss it with you.

Take Up Your Cross!
